Paul's Shipwreck

Acts 27-28

STORY POINT: PAUL TRUSTED GOD TO RESCUE HIM.

Paul was a prisoner in Caesarea. He had asked to see Caesar about his case. Paul got on a ship with other prisoners going to Rome. Strong winds and rain tossed the ship. The storm did not stop for many days. All the people on the ship were afraid they would die.

One night, God sent an angel to Paul. The angel told Paul to not be afraid. God would save the lives of everyone on the ship. Paul told everyone on board what God had said. "Take courage," he said.

When the ship got close to an island, they raised the sails and headed toward the island.

When they got close, the ship struck a sandbar and it began to break into pieces. An army officer ordered everyone to swim for shore. Those who could not swim clung to the planks and pieces of the ship. They all made it safely to shore. Paul was right; God saved all of their lives.

Three months later, Paul got onto another ship and sailed to Rome. Paul was allowed to live by himself in a house. A soldier stayed with him to guard him. People came to Paul's house and listened to him speak about Jesus. Some of the people believed and followed Jesus.

Christ Connection: Paul trusted God to keep His promise to rescue him from the storm. He encouraged the sailors to trust and obey God too. God calls us to trust in His Son, Jesus, who died to rescue us from sin and death, and to tell others this good news.
